

From the NY Post:

For his next scam . . .

Retired FDNY Lt. John "Johnny Lungs" McLaughlin, who collects a tax-free, $86,000 disability pension despite being an accomplished triathlete and marathon runner, has also muscled into line for a cut of the city's proposed $712 million 9/11-victim settlement.

The Post's Carl Campanile and Bruce Golding reported yesterday that McLaughlin could get as much as $62,000 from a suit he filed.

To do what -- buy new running shoes?

Read complete article at: Triathlete firefighter greedily seeks 9/11 cash--Editorial - NYPOST.com